

THE GUILD ELECTION HANDBOOK

A guide to the 2023 Annual Guild Elections

Produced by
Curtin Student Guild

Version 2023.v1

INTRODUCTION

This handbook has been produced by the Curtin Student Guild for the benefit of all potential candidates in the Guild elections. If you intend to participate as a candidate in the elections, it is essential that you become fully acquainted with its contents.

PLEASE PAY PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE RELEVANT CLOSURE DATES AND PROCEDURES FOR NOMINATION AND POLICY STATEMENT SUBMISSIONS FOR PUBLICATION.

PLEASE NOTE ALSO THE PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL OF ELECTION MATERIAL AND THE LIMITS ON HOW MUCH YOU CAN SPEND ON ELECTION MATERIAL. IT MUST BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO.

The Student Guild (Election and Referenda) Regulations 2018 are the legislative basis for the elections and are available here: www.guild.curtin.edu.au/governance. In the event of a discrepancy between this handbook and any relevant Regulations, the Regulations will prevail.

WHY SHOULD YOU GET INVOLVED?

University is a place where we come to study, socialise and develop life skills. Some of the most interesting, memorable and rewarding experiences you encounter are gained through interaction with your peers. Here at the Curtin Student Guild, students have obtained a lifetime of rewards by being a part of a dynamic group of people.

By becoming a part of the Guild, you learn about the wider university community, get your voice heard by the Government, represent your fellow students on University boards and committees, and are part of a successful representative union. You will get to know politics, learn about marketing and public relations, and get insight into how the University is managed. Most important of all, the Guild is a place where you can really make a difference. At one time or another, the University may have done something that has really annoyed you. The Guild is a place where you can stop complaining and start doing something about it.

WHAT DOES THE GUILD DO?

The Guild represents all students at Curtin University.

Through ownership of the campus food outlets and catering, the Tavern, G-Mart, vending machines, and the funds from SSAF, the Guild has been able to develop a stable funding base to support representation.

But what does representation mean?

Guild Representatives sit on many boards and committees within the University. The Guild runs educational campaigns regularly. It also has six departments which focus on special interest groups with specific needs – the Women's, Queer, International (ISC), Postgraduate (PSC), First Nations and Accessibility Departments.

The Guild is the peak representative body of students at Curtin University and is driven by the Guild Council.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF AND ELIGIBILITY FOR THE POSITION

If elected, you are expected to represent all Guild Members and the wider student community for one year (two years for Guild councillors) starting 1 December 2023. They entrust you to look after their interests, financial and otherwise, and expect you to actively participate in the Guild Council and/or the Representation Board on their behalf.

The Student Guild Rules made by the University Council outline the fiduciary duties of all Guild Officers:

- (1) Each Officer-
  - (a) must at all times act honestly in the performance of the functions of the Officer, whether within or outside the State;
  - (b) must at all times exercise the degree of care and diligence in the performance of the functions of the Officer, whether within or outside the State, that a reasonable person in that position would reasonably be expected to exercise;
  - (c) must at all times act in the best interests of the Guild and give precedence to the interests of the Guild over the interests of any person appointing or electing the Officer;
  - (d) must not, whether within or outside the State, make improper use of information acquired by virtue of the position of the Officer to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for any person or to cause detriment to the Guild; and
  - (e) must not, whether within or outside the State, make improper use of the position of the Officer to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for any person or to cause detriment to the Guild.
- (2) Nothing in subrule (1) affects-
  - (a) any other duty the Officer may have under any other law; or
  - (b) the operation of any other law in relation to such a duty.

The Guild Statute Book outlines the general responsibilities of each individual officer; it is a binding requirement that you follow these rules, regulations and by laws.

In addition to the positions outlined earlier in this document, the National Union of Students (NUS) delegate positions will be available for appointment through the Annual General Elections.

Note that for the voluntary position of Guild Councillor, if you are elected, you will have to attend Guild Council Meetings held once a month, respond to any circular resolutions outside of ordinary meetings and attend other regular University Boards and Committees. Here you will be required to make decisions that can be significant and binding as well as trivial and mundane. There are similar expectations of Representation Board members with respect to Representation Board and University Boards and Committees.

Before the meeting you should read the documentation (the agenda). It is expected you will contribute intelligently to the discussion in accordance with the rules of Guild Council or Representation Board as relevant. Being a member of the Guild Council or Representation Board, it is expected you will also generally help out around the Guild, making yourself available to the Executive (comprised of President, Vice-Presidents and Secretary), help out (and have fun) at Guild events, and most importantly make yourself available to the general student body you represent.

Special Requirements...

NUS...

Curtin is affiliated to the National Union of Students (<http://nus.asn.au>) and is entitled to elect delegates to the National conference. At present Curtin is eligible to send seven (7) delegates. Delegates are elected in much the same way as Guild Councillors. Any enrolled student can nominate for these positions, even if they have nominated for another position.

Anyone who is elected as a NUS delegate is expected to attend the National conferences. The National conference is usually held in Victoria and goes on for about four days in early December. The Guild pays reasonable costs for transport, accommodation and registration (and, subject to available funding, food and incidentals) for elected delegates for the duration of the National conference.

At the conferences, delegates from all member campuses in the country gather to determine policy, finances and the office bearers for the following year.

INDUCTION

Elected Officers are expected to attend and participate in handover and induction activities. It is expected that this will require attendance on campus at the Bentley campus (or otherwise in the Perth metropolitan area) on the 30th of November and 1st of December.

NOMINATIONS

All enrolled students who meet the eligibility requirements may nominate. To nominate, pick up a nomination form from the Guild Reception (Building 106F) or the Guild Website <https://guild.curtin.edu.au/elections/> and fill in all of the information. There are two nomination forms: one for NUS Delegates and one for all Guild Office bearer roles.

If you are unsure if you would like to nominate, or would like to discuss the elections, you are able to make an appointment to speak with The Returning Officer (RO) Ms Kelly Dansie by calling 0433 056 950 or emailing: GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com. The Returning Officer is independent from the Guild so you can be assured that your conversation will be confidential.

Your nomination must be witnessed by either a member of Guild Staff authorised by the Managing Director (at Guild Reception, Building 106F), the Returning Officer or a Justice of the Peace, who has seen your student card. For those enrolled at satellite/regional campuses your nomination must be witnessed by either a staff member at the satellite campus or a Justice of the Peace who has seen your student card.

It is also important that you pay the nomination deposit. In order for a candidate's nomination to be valid, a $10 deposit (preferably online or otherwise at Guild Reception) must be paid prior to or with the nomination form. The maximum amount payable by a candidate shall be $10 no matter how many positions they nominate for. No nomination deposit is required for NUS nominations. Nomination deposits will be refunded to those candidates who are successful in becoming elected.

When you have done this put your nomination form in an envelope and into the nomination box in the Guild Reception (Building 106F) or, for those on satellite/regional campuses, email a scanned copy to the Returning Officer (GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com) from your Curtin student email account.

You also have the opportunity to provide a policy statement of up to 500 words (rich text format or Word format) which can be emailed to the Returning Officer (GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com) from your Curtin student email account. You may also include a recent digital head and shoulder photo (in jpeg format and no larger than 1MB in file size). Note that:

- a) The policy statement must include the candidate's name and position(s) nominated for and must be confined to information about the candidate and statements of the candidate's policies and beliefs.
- b) Candidate photographs should reflect an accurate appearance of the candidate without any background/or extra information visible on the photo.

Number of positions that you can nominate for...

A person may nominate only for one (1) position that is a member of Guild Council and one (1) position that is a member of the Representation Board.

Example: A person who is eligible could nominate to be a Guild Councillor and the Faculty of Business and Law Representative. However, a person could not nominate to be President and Faculty of Business and Law Representative as the President is also a member of the Representation Board.

Example: A person who is eligible could nominate to be a Guild Councillor, the Faculty of Business and Law Representative and a NUS Delegate.

A person cannot nominate to be Vice President – Activities and a member of the Representation Board.

You may nominate for more than one position on the same nomination form. However, note that each nomination form must be signed by two Guild members (nominators) who shall:

- (a) be represented by the position that they are nominating a candidate for;

Example: A person cannot nominate a candidate for Women's Officer unless they identify as a woman. A Health Sciences student cannot nominate a Humanities Representative.

- (b) be Guild Members; and
- (c) support the nomination of only one (1) candidate per position.

Example: A person cannot nominate two persons to be President.

To meet these nominator requirements may mean that you need to have more than one nomination form if nominating for multiple positions.

Affirmative Action...

Of the six (6) Guild Councillors to be elected at least three (3) must not identify as men.

If you do not identify as a man (or identify as a woman) and are nominating for position(s) reserved for those not identifying as men you must select this option on the nomination form.

Nomination forms are due by 12:00 noon, Thursday 31 August 2023

GROUP REGISTRATION FORM

This will allow you and others with shared interests to run as a group. You may wish to run in a group to pool campaign expenditure/allowances and campaigners. The following is a guide on how to fill out the form:

If a group is continuing...

If you are continuing as a group from 2022 you can retain your group name and colour as long as the Group Agents from 2022, or a majority of the candidates on that group from 2022, consent to the continuation of the Group. The last page of the Group registration form must be completed for a group to continue.

Name of Group

If filling the form out by hand, make sure that you print clearly and in block letters so that the Returning Officer knows the name you are after. Remember, have a back-up name in case someone else registers the name before you. A Group name may not be accepted by the Returning Officer if it:

- (a) comprises either more than seven (7) words or thirty-five (35) characters;
- (b) is obscene or in poor taste in the opinion of the Returning Officer;
- (c) could be confused with another Group;
- (d) comprises or contains the words "independent" or "Guild" or "NUS" or an abbreviation of those words; or
- (e) is misleading.

Claim to reserve the following colour...

Fill out this section to reserve your colour. This colour is what you use on all your campaign material (i.e. you must print on this coloured paper). The colour is decided by draw if more than one team wants the same colour. No candidate or ticket will be allowed to choose the same colour, regardless of the shade. If group A chooses blue, no other candidate/group may choose blue. White is reserved for the Returning Officer and the colours you may choose from are as follows:

Blue
Pink
Green
Yellow (Lemon)
Orange
Lilac
Sand

The above colours are indicative and colours are subject to availability from the suppliers.

Group Agents

You must authorise both a primary group agent and a secondary group agent. The secondary group agent will be contacted in the event that the Returning Officer is unsuccessful in contacting the primary group agent. Group Agents are able to act on behalf of the group in working with the Returning Officer, they must be Candidates in your Group.

Group Members

In this section each Candidate in your group must write their names and sign, this is the list of people within your group. A Candidate cannot be in more than one group. The order on the list does not matter as positions on the ballot paper are chosen randomly.

Group Registrations close at 12:00 noon, Thursday 31 August 2023 (the same time as nominations). Candidates may be added to a Group after Thursday 31 August provided that the candidate has met registration requirements and the relevant form is provided to the returning officer by 12:00 noon, Thursday 7 September 2023.

THE RETURNING OFFICER

The Returning Officer is responsible for the entire conduct of the elections. They been appointed by the Vice Chancellor to ensure that the Guild Elections are fair and free. Any questions should go through the Returning Officer Ms Kelly Dansie by calling 0433 056 950 or emailing GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com

SATELLITE CAMPUSES

Unbeknown to many, Curtin University does not exist solely on the Bentley campus. We have many regional/satellite campuses in WA and globally including the City and Kalgoorlie. Students at these campuses, provided they meet the eligibility criteria, may still run as candidates, and they may vote via postal votes.

POSTAL VOTES

To cater for part-time students, regional students, those who are away and so on, the Guild enables these people to vote even though they cannot attend voting booths. All candidates' policy statements will be available to view on the Guild's website so postal voters know who they are voting for.

An application for postal vote form must be completed and received by the Returning Officer no later than 12:00 noon, Tuesday 12 September 2023 in order to be eligible for a postal vote. Application forms for a postal vote are available from Guild Reception on the Guild website.

Each Group and each independent candidate may also lodge a Postal Vote Flyer (one double-sided A4 page) for inclusion in postal vote packages. The flyer must include contact details of the Group or candidate. Flyers must first be approved as election material by the RO (See "Approval Process" below) and will be included in packages only if available to the RO at the time that package is sent.

APPROVAL PROCESS FOR ELECTION MATERIAL

1. Material for approval must be attached to a completed election material approval form and emailed to the Returning Officer at GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com. The Returning Officer will review the material and provided the material complies with the requirements of the regulations you will receive approval via email
2. Once approved, you may produce the quantity of the material applied for (quantities must comply with the minimum order quantities below). Remember! Do not produce material before approval is received as the authorisation may be withheld for a number of reasons.
3. You can print your printed material at G-Mart. The G-Mart staff will provide you with the appropriately coloured and sized paper when you show them your RO approved election material approval form. While the Returning Officer and the Guild will make all reasonable efforts, it is the responsibility of the candidates to allow sufficient time for approval of material. Applications for printed election materials should be sent prior to 5pm Wednesday 13 September, after this time applications are not guaranteed to be assessed before polling commences.
4. All material produced shall be costed in accordance with the Guild Election Regulations. Each candidate/group shall have a separate section in the election file and the total running cost to each campaign will be recorded. Material will not be approved over the expenditure limit of $50.00 per candidate if in a group or $200.00 if running independently.
5. Authorised material may only be circulated to the student body in the approved manner.
6. Electronic media may only be used after approval (e.g. you must be approved to use a specific Facebook page but the content itself does not need to be approved). However, the Returning Officer may subsequently:
  - a. Direct that electronic media content is removed and/or corrected.
  - b. Direct a candidate/group to provide content for approval prior to posting on electronic media.
7. Candidates are responsible for the content in campaign material.

Candidates shall not directly influence/request others to digitally post material that would aid their election to office.

COSTINGS AND APPROVAL

READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY: The Guild does not fund candidates; it funds the cost of running the election. Candidates must fund their own campaigns. The Guild limits the amount candidates can spend on campaigns in order to ensure equity.

The reason for costing candidates and setting a spending limit is to limit the amount of election material on campus and also to provide some sort of a level playing field for all candidates. According to regulations each candidate not in a group can spend no more than $200.00 on election material and each group no more than $2000.00 for each group, however unlike independent candidates, each candidate in a group only adds $50.00 to the total allowance. For example, a group with 10 students will have an allowance of 10x$50 = $500.00. The following is a list of commonly used election material as approved by the Managing Director of the Guild and adopted by the Returning Officer. It is worth noting that the 'costing' may not necessarily reflect the actual monetary cost of producing an item – even if you can get material for free from a friend or previous years, it still must be costed and authorised.

ITEM	COSTING	APPROVAL NEEDED
T-shirts (including reused shirts from previous years)	$15ea (Actual cost may be higher, but only $15 will be deducted from allowable spend)	Content must be authorised by RO
A3	30c single-sided, 60c double-sided	Content must be authorised by RO
A4	15c single-sided, 30c double-sided	Content must be authorised by RO
Banner	$50 regardless of the cost of the banner	Content must be authorised by RO. Only one per polling place per Group/Independent Candidate.
Social Media	$20 for each platform	Authorisation required to use but not for content. Only One per Group/ Independent Candidate for each social media product (eg Instagram, Tik Tok, Facebook etc)
Web site	$20	Authorisation required to use but not for content. Only One per Group/ Independent Candidate
Stickers	BANNED	BANNED

Other sizes such as A5 and DL can be made by cutting up printed A3 or A4 sheets.

Other campaigning techniques may be considered and costed by the Returning Officer on request and all forms of campaigning must first be approved by the Returning Officer

THE COUNT

The Guild uses the system of optional proportional representation to count the ballot. In simple terms this means that, in a single vacancy election where a candidate does not get over 50% of the primary vote, the ballot is determined by preferences. In multi vacancy elections candidates must reach a quota to be elected. The full outline of how this count is carried out is in the Election Regulations.

PROBLEMS

Preparing yourself for an election campaign to enter the Guild can be a challenging and daunting task, especially if this is your first election and you have had limited, or no prior, involvement with the Guild. Some of the problems generally faced begin with policies.

A large part of an election is relaying your ideas and policies across to the electorate. Campaigning can present a few common problems some of which are fear of going up against experienced campaigners, not knowing the rules and regulations, and a lack of knowledge of the avenue available to the campaigner. There may also be anxiety in facing the electorate. An understanding of the reasons behind your policies will reduce this anxiety and enhance the effectiveness of your campaign technique.

Reading this Handbook and the Election Regulations will provide you with information about what you can and cannot do in relation to an election. Refer to the strategy options below to help you with the campaign.

POLICIES

These are the areas of concerns that you decide to campaign on, usually in the form of existing problems and how you would tackle them. Your policies must be realistic and persuasive in order to attract votes. It is also useful if they are easy to attain, because if you can't follow through on promises, a lot of people will not be very happy.

CAMPAIGNERS

If you want a good chance at being elected you will need people to help you. This is where running in a group is helpful, however you may wish to ask your friends who are students at Curtin to help out by handing out How to Votes, doing poster runs or speaking at lectures. To give all candidates a fair chance, campaigners must be enrolled students (ie enrolled in at least one Curtin University unit and, as such, would include UniReady students). A person who is distributing campaign material or otherwise canvassing must produce their student card when requested by the Returning Officer.

You must also make sure that your campaigners are aware of the Regulations, election offences and the contents of this Election Handbook. If an individual campaigning for you breaches the rules, you or your group may be penalised.

Campaigners must not infringe on a person's right to move freely around campus by:

- Standing in the middle of a path forcing an individual to stop and talk to them
- Following an individual who has refused to stop to talk
- Touching an individual at any time
- 'Shepherding' another campaigner preventing them speaking to an individual

In addition to this, campaigners are not allowed to engage students:

- Within bus stations, Curtin Stadium, Curtin Connect, the Chancellery (100), or the Library

- Within commercial outlets/shops or Guild leased/operated areas
- along Sir Charles Court Promenade adjacent to and between Buildings 106 and 103
- between Buildings 102 and 103.
- along Sir Charles Court Promenade adjacent to building 204 and between buildings 204 and 216
- between Buildings 209 and 210
- between Buildings 204 and 210
- wearing a no campaigning sticker or who states they do not wish to be campaigned to.

These areas are clearly depicted on the annexed map. Campaigners caught within these areas will be moved on and may be subject to University Safer Communities Team intervention and any disciplinary proceedings resulting from this intervention.

A map is available on the Guild's website.

ELECTORS

To be eligible for enrolment to vote in the Annual General Election a person must be an enrolled student of the University at the Semester Two Census Date. An enrolled student is someone who is enrolled in at least one unit and, as such, would include UniReady students and trimester students.

STRATEGY

Make yourself visible.

Let the voters see you! Pick a bright colour for your posters, how to vote cards, and other campaign material.

KISS – “Keep It Simple, Stupid.”

A complex poster or message will be ignored.

Cover all bases.

Don't just concentrate on your own division and friends. Whilst they are important, make sure that everyone on campus has a chance to hear your message.

Be prepared.

Make sure you have enough material ready, particularly during days when voting is going on. Make sure you and your team mates get enough sleep the night before... you will need it.

Never be too sure.

Don't miss a chance to speak at a lecture or to talk to a potential voter. It is easy to slow down towards the end of a campaign but it is not unusual for someone to lose by just one vote.

Don't let anyone get to you.

Often a psychological battle is waged to demoralise or distract opposing candidates. Don't even bother with such tactics; just ignore anyone who tries to upset you. Remember, they were not going to vote for you anyway.

Be consistent.

Send a common message to the electorate. This can be achieved by condensing your policy down to 10 or so specific points and not moving from these. A logo or mascot on all your material may also help voters recognise your material and equate it to your candidacy. Make sure that everyone in the team is sending the same message.

Know the rules.

Make sure you pick up a copy of the Guild Rules and Regulations, and read them (not as obvious as you might think). Read the Election Handbook (this) and if you have any questions, ask the Returning Officer.

Plan ahead.

As soon as you decide to nominate, sit down and write down all of your ideas for policies. Then write down your resources-time, money, helpers. Flesh out your ideas properly then condense them down to a few major points. Work out what you want your material to look like and how much you intend/can afford to produce. Often someone you know will be able to help design, or be willing to help distribute material. Set out a time line for your campaign and be prepared to modify it if necessary.

GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT AT GUILD RECEPTION

Guild Reception remains exactly that throughout the election period – it does not become an election foyer.

In light of this, the following must be observed by all election candidates when they are in the Guild Reception area:

- ❖ Election-related discussions/arguments are not to be held in the Guild Reception.
- ❖ Do not walk behind the Reception Desk without the receptionist's approval. The Guild Receptionist must be advised of your movement when you go into one of the offices or a Guild Meeting room.
- ❖ You cannot use the reception phone for election-related calls
- ❖ No campaigning is to occur in the Guild Reception area.

LECTURE SPEAKING

When speaking to a group in a lecture theatre or tutorial room, speak clearly, know what you are going to say and keep it brief.

In the past, some academic staff have requested that candidates should refrain from using lecture theatres, immediately prior to lectures, as a forum for their campaigning. Always seek permission before speaking in lecture theatres and classes. If campaigning with a team, avoid repeating the same lecture twice.

TIPSBanners...

A highly visible medium and an easy and efficient method of alerting students of your presence and intention to run in the Guild Election.

Independent candidates can also list the position they are running for as well as any other relevant information that is approved.

T-Shirts...

An excellent way of identifying campaigners. They can be printed on one side or both, in the nominated colour of either the team or independent with the person's name or logo printed on it. The most effective way to do this is with silk screening. Depending on your artistic capabilities you can attempt it yourself or hire a printing company to do it for you.

Leaflets...

Leaflets are a good way of getting students to read about your policies and candidates, expanding on the information on your posters. It is important that you don't litter by leaving leaflets in classrooms/lecture theatres. If you leaflet a classroom/lecture theatre you should go back later to clean up – you will also be able to reuse the leaflets the next day!

Posters...

Posters can only be affixed in approved areas. For example, do not put posters on the postgraduate nursing student information board or a staff information board. Do not put more than one type of poster on each board. You are also not permitted to remove, deface, cover up or shift opposing election material.

It is advisable to do regular poster runs around the campus to ensure your posters have not been tampered with. If so, do not take the law into your own hands. Inform the Returning Officer.

The best layout for any poster is the simplest one. Don't try to cram your posters full of information. That is what leaflets are for. Posters should be designed to catch the eye, demand attention and remind people of your key points.

The University By-Laws state that no person shall without authority:

- (a) post, paint or otherwise affix to any building, sign, structure, vehicle or tree on the University lands or publish or distribute within the University lands any placard, paper, notice or advertisement or other written, printed or graphic matter; or
- (b) write on, draw on, paint or deface any building, sign, structure, vehicle or tree on the University lands

For the 2023 Annual General Election, the University provides authorisation to affix posters to University buildings and structures, as long as the following conditions are met.

Poster Rules:

- Chalking and other forms of marking structures is not allowed
- Posters may not be displayed on University buildings or structures until 12.01am on the Monday of the week prior to the commencement of polling
- All material must be taken down by 5pm Friday of the week that the polling concludes
- Posters are not to be affixed to any glass windows or doors including building entries
- Posters are not to be affixed to any artwork, sculptures, or directional signs including signs for commercial businesses or in any location that could cause a hazard
- Posters are not to be fixed where it is hazardous to fix the poster (for example, possible to fall more than 1 m while fixing the poster)
- Posters are not to be affixed to toilets and painted walls and posters are not to be permanently affixed to walls
- Posters are not to be affixed to temporary construction fencing
- Posters placed internally within university buildings must be displayed on community noticeboards
- Multiple posters may not be placed together to form a large block
- Posters must not be placed within 5 metres of cafes/shops/outlets or the Guild Precinct which includes the Building 106 Precinct, Agora Courtyard and Building 104 (Guild Café Central). Additionally, posters may not be placed in Wesfarmers Courtyard (B 408) or on the front (northern side) of the Library (B105).

- Posters not on community noticeboards are to be placed only on structures within 15 metres of paths outlined in the annexed map of the University in accordance with these rules.
- The candidate must make good and remediate the structure that the posters are affixed to. This includes marks left by blu-tack or sticky tape residue. Candidates should use masking tape to avoid leaving marks on the structures.
- Each poster must contain the name and address of the candidate who authorised the material. This person shall be responsible for removing posters, remediating structures and generally displaying the posters in accordance with these rules. The display of an “authorised by” name shall be prima facie evidence that it is the name of the person who affixed the poster and this person may be fined if these rules are not adhered to.

PREFERENCING

We do not use Group Preferences (also known as Above the Line Votes/Group Voting Tickets). If you wish for voters to number preferences in a particular order, you may hand out How to Vote Cards (see next section).

HOW TO VOTE CARDS

The cornerstone of your campaign is your How-To-Vote (HTV) cards. In the more traditional sense, these used to just list the order you recommended the voters should vote for all the candidates. However, more recently they have become complete guides to the various policies you may have, they may also contain photographs. A well thought out and designed HTV can attract quite a few votes.

How-to-vote cards must not instruct electors to vote informally and must indicate at least one first preference for every position up for election.

POLLING LOCATIONS

It is intended that:

- Polling at the Bentley campus will take place at Club HQ and Curtin South (near Mallokup Café) per the below timetable:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Clubs HQ	10am – 6pm	8am – 4pm	10am – 4pm	10am – 4pm
Curtin South (near Mallokup Café)	10am – 4pm	10am – 4pm	10am – 4pm	10am – 4pm

ONCE POLLING IS OVER

Election results will posted on Building 106F as soon as they are available (at the entry to Guild Reception). The Returning Officer will notify each candidate of the outcome of the elections and all candidates will receive a certificate of participation.

Groups and independent candidates can appoint an individual to scrutineer the vote. Information on scrutiny is on the election page.

FINALLY

The elections are hard and gruelling but the rewards are great. They are the single most significant part of a democratic and accountable Guild, so make sure that all you do throughout the elections is done with that same spirit. Dirty tactics are not required to win the election. If you have good ideas, go by the book, work hard, and you will have a very good chance of getting on to Council. Best of luck!

COMPLAINTS AND CONDUCT

While we hope the elections are trouble-free, you may want to make a complaint about a candidate, campaigner or the conduct of the election.

It is recommended that you contact the Returning Officer first to discuss your complaint – it could just be a misunderstanding. The Returning Officer, Ms Kelly Dansie, can be contacted by calling 0433 056 950 or emailing GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com.

For complaints relating to election misconduct or a disputed election result, you can lodge a complaint addressed to the Chair of the Election Tribunal and the Returning Officer (the complaint can be delivered to Guild reception (Building 106F, Bentley Campus) and/or emailed to the returning officer GuildElectionCurtinUni@outlook.com). Complaints should always be in writing and include as much information as possible to help the investigation of the complaint. This includes things such as dates, description of what happened and why it constitutes election misconduct, what has been done about it so far, supporting documentation and names/contact details of witnesses.

Before lodging a complaint, please ensure that you have read the requirements of clause 12 of the Student Guild (Tribunal) Regulations 2018 which can be found here www.guild.curtin.edu.au/governance.

THE STUDENT CHARTER

All students of Curtin University have agreed to uphold the Student Charter when enrolling in their degree. The Student Charter details the expectations and responsibilities of both the university and students to ensure a welcoming, supportive and safe environment.

It is expected that candidates and their supporters evidence these values of Integrity, Respect, Courage, Excellence and Impact throughout their campaign. Failure to do so may result in either a breach of expected standards of behaviour or possible student discipline proceedings under Statute 10. Penalties for Student Misconduct range from a formal warning to expulsion from the University and are explained in the General Misconduct Rules.

If you believe a student has breached either the Student Charter or the General Misconduct Rules you may lodge a written complaint with the Student Discipline and Appeals Office on sdao@curtin.edu.au. This can be done in conjunction with lodging a complaint to the Chair of the Election Tribunal and the Returning Officer.
